It was anounced on Tuesday that Morton and the Atlanta Falcons have agreed to a three-year contract with a $4 million guaranteed. "It was a pretty easy decision. It was the place I thought it was going to be at all times," Morton said of the Falcons during his first press conference after his official introduction. Morton started four games for Auburn was unsure of what the Falcons were going to do at the position with Melvin Ingram out for the season. However, the team had some solid options eaon shore son. However, when the Falcons were going to be at all times," Morton said. "I grew up in the city of Atlanta and have played a little bit of football there in high school. I was just ready to seemed to expect Morton to continue to be special teams player. However, when the Falcons were going out of the two leasen. However, when the Falcons were going out of the second round, they brought Morton in for a closer look, and they 0cc13bf012
