Howard, first published in the pulp magazine Adventure in December, 1931. The story is a less sophisticated updating of the ancient Greek myth of the fall of Troy, and is notable for being one of the last of Howard's stories to be written, also for his first published story featuring his character Kullervo, and the first of his El Borak stories, of which God's Final Battle is the second. The story follows the Greek warrior Diomedes, who seeks to kill the god Apollo, a lesser god and the god of the dead, for tricking him into marrying his sister by trickery. To compare a touchscreen system (Responder Touchscreen; Delmar Reynolds) with a computerised barcode-based (infant nutrition monitoring and recording system) system to assess completeness and accuracy of data entered. Prospective assessment of data entered in an electronic database. A neonatal intensive care unit and neonatal high dependency unit. A convenience sample of 116 observations of infants who were enterally fed for 48 h or more. None. Six variables were recorded on the touchscreen, seven variables were recorded on the barcode, and ten variables were recorded on a data collection sheet. Data were recorded in two segments, the first describing feed type, and second describing feeding rate, time and volume. Variables were manually crosschecked between two data collection sheets, then enterally fed infants were observed to ensure correct recording. A high proportion of correct data entry was entered onto the touchscreen (91.4%, 95% CI 88.8% to 94.0%; p=0.001). Both systems were used incorrectly, with the barcode more often used to record other variables not present on the touchscreen. Infants who were enterally fed using the Responder Touch

The game plays in the same genre as games like Endless Space and Stellar TradersÂ .NEW YORK — The Empire State's new governor is a Republican, and the state's new health commissioner says Medicaid expansion will be a top priority. And neither of them is shaking up the state's abortion laws. Governor Andrew Cuomo, a Democrat, said his office is reviewing the state health department's policy on abortion. In a statement posted on the governor's website on Wednesday, Cuomo said he considers abortion to be "a health decision" and the state's health commissioner, Howard Zucker, said that "affirming abortion rights" is a crucial part of his job. When asked about that potential policy shift, Cuomo told reporters during a Wednesday news conference that he was "reflecting" on the abortion issue. New York allows abortion for any reason until the 22nd week of a pregnancy. In the absence of an abortion law passed by lawmakers, the state's health department has the authority to make policy, though the agency has been unwavering in its opposition to abortion rights in the past. An executive order issued in 2014 prohibits state employees from using state funds to perform abortions unless the pregnant person's life is at risk. The order
