Nashville's newest sports bar on the block is set to open next week, offering a view of the city's skyline, as well as a drink menu, food menu, and designated spaces for patrons to catch the game. The Stacked Deck Sports Bar has partnered with Bridgestone to offer the area's first live sports bar on the corner of First Avenue North and First Avenue South. Formerly located at West End Tavern, the sports bar will be an extension of Stacked Deck, a Midtown pub which has been wildly popular among downtown patrons and locals in recent years. As the bar becomes a staple of downtown's nightlife scene, it aims to serve a wide variety of crowds, offering a "uniquely urban experience on the block and in the downtown market" according to Co-Founder and CEO Winston Eiler. With a focus on drinks and food, the new sports bar will feature a full bar, small bites, patio, games and activities for all ages, while also offering live sports viewing and game day specials. Executive Chef and Co-Founder Jonny Sargent, formerly of Eiler's Grand Cafe, states that the food menu will change daily based on what's available and will always be "street-centric and small plates for sharing." Co-Founder and Co-CEO Virginia Mitchell adds, "We're all about creating a social and neighborhood experience in a comfortable atmosphere. It's also a major sports bar." The Stacked Deck Sports Bar also includes an expansive patio with outdoor seating on the corner of First Avenue North and First Avenue South, and plans to host a wide variety of events and activities, including concerts and tours of the Music City. Sargent admits that the couple decided to open the pub with the intention of creating a one-of-a-kind venue. "It really had to be simple, functional, and affordable," he says. Sargent also believes the city's newest sports bar will help "further integrate into the downtown community."

"Downtown is the heartbeat of the city," Sargent continues. "We're thrilled to play a role Videos. Ive made this playlist of some of the songs that i think are absolutely amazing. I have divided them by genre which was challenging and sometimes exhausting, but i think its a good way to show you just what i like and would like to hear more of.

This playlist is made up of 1 hr 57 mins of mixed music, from Rock to Pop to R&B and of course Country.
Ive been musically inclined my whole life, but i have only recently started getting into the world of alternative music. Ive always loved listening to everything from Marvin Gaye to The Beatles, but its now time to branch out and listen to some crazy inventive people like There Will Be Blood and Vampire Weekend and find out what all the fuss is about. So get your ears over to this playlist and let these songs take you on an amazing journey of alternative music, and if you dont get this music, im sorry, but im not playing your CD's anymore x. ?Download MP3 Music?Music?Download Free Music?No Download Music?Gallery?Download Music Videos?Download Tv Top Songs?Top Games Download?Download Free Music Videos. The full playlist can be found by clicking the link below. I've made the full playlist below, which includes 68 tracks (38 hours long, in total), and so its really worth checking out over the course of a few days. Im probably only going to be able to list the best songs, most of which Ive not heard before, from each artist. I would recommend you listen to each of the tracks and make up your own mind about them. If you know more about each artist, let me know
