music department, the concert hall and the students. - Matthew Carver/The Oshawa Express Over the weekend of Feb. 10-11, Oshawa's newly refurbished OVO Hall hosted the Festival of New Arts, a festival that celebrated culture in Oshawa. The event brought together different art forms such as theatre, dance and music. As always, a live music concert filled the crowd's ears with the sounds of Glen Hansard and Markéta Flecková. As one of the festival's biggest events of the year, the festival was made up of performances from artists like Big Sean, Markéta Flecková, Deitrick Haddon, Kirin J. Callinan, Drive-By Truckers, the Shaggs, and many more. All tickets for the concert were sold out weeks before the concert began. For students d0c515b9f4
