I have been using Photoshop since I was an introvert teenager, and it has been my primary tool of production. I started this website because I believe the world needs a free, beginner-friendly resource for learning how to use Photoshop. I would like to share my knowledge with the world and help you achieve the professional results that you need to. On top of that, I have a lot of free time and my inner editor likes doing detailed, hands-on tutorials. This website is dedicated to helping you learn Photoshop through hands-on tutorial videos. Please enjoy the content below and if you have any comments or feedback, please reach out to me on Instagram or on Twitter. Technical Requirements If you're viewing this article on mobile, check your internet speed and resolution first. I would suggest 800×480 or 1024×768 and 1Mbps. Additionally, I would recommend an updated computer with the latest features and an internet connection because I will be teaching you some advanced techniques. Thanks for reading and I hope you find the content on this website useful!
